They Paid the Ultimate Sacrifice!

The death of a law enforcement officer has greater ramifications as each year goes by for the family members of a parent, brother or sister who has lost their life in the line of duty. While the average shows we lose one officer every 57 hours across the country. Even with crime rates showing crime in decline one thing for sure is too many law enforcement officers are still dying at the hands of those who have no respect for authority. One may ask oneself; where does it stop? The answer is simple. I doesn't! As long as there is crime officers will lose their life the streets at the hands of those looking to make their gains in ways the average person could never even dream of.

The goal of the Sheriff Police Foundation is to provide our law enforcement families with a way to hopefully allow them to grieve without the fear of losing their homes because there is no longer a second income or the only income to provide for the family needs. To eliminate the worry of missing work, while having endure the grieving process. The process may seem long to those in the supporting role but even longer to those families affected by the death of their loved one. We are proud with supporting our law enforcement families in their time and hour of need. We depend on businesses, communities and individuals living and working daily in our communities. Through donations we make it possible for families to get back on their feet with respect and dignity for those officers who have paid the ultimate sacrifice. When the Press and politicians are long gone we will still be here.
